Section D: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the question.

Once, there lived a white cow, a black cow and a brown cow in a field. They stayed close to one another and never wandered far. They were safe from attackers.

One day, a lion came to the field from the jungle. It looked hungrily at the three cows. The lion had not eaten for many days. It could not attack the three cows at the same time. The lion thought of a plan. It decided to attack the cows one by one.

The lion made friends with the brown cow. Soon, they became good friends. The other cows were upset with the brown cow.

The white cow tried to talk to the lion to go back to the jungle. Instead of talking to the white cow, the lion ate it. When the black cow could not find the white cow, it went up the hill to look for the lion. The lion then ate the black cow.

In the end, the lion also ate his good friend, the brown cow.
