Section G: Comprehension

Read the passage below carefully.

Mrs Tan was alone at home reading the newspaper. She was bored so she decided to read something else. The bookshelf was filled with story books, magazines and recipe books.

Suddenly, she had an idea.

"I'll bake a cake!" she exclaimed.

A picture of a chocolate cake in a recipe book caught her eyes. After she had read the instructions, she realised that she only had a packet of sugar and flour at home. Picking up her purse, she went to the supermarket to buy some eggs, butter and cocoa powder.

She returned home and started preparing the ingredients. She mixed the butter and sugar before adding in the eggs, flour and cocoa powder. Finally, she placed the cake mixture into the oven.

Minutes later, the cake was baked. She opened the oven door and the aroma of cocoa filled the kitchen.

"A cake, the entire family can enjoy!" she said excitedly.

Choose the most suitable answer.

Mrs Tan was _____ after reading the newspaper.

Section F: Reading Comprehension

Read the passage carefully. Answer the questions that follow.

The scorching sun stood high as a thirsty ant was crawling along the riverbank. He had been searching for food all morning and decided to have a drink from the river. As the tiny ant made his way down, he slipped and fell into the water. He wailed frantically, "Someone, please save me or I'll drown!"

Fortunately, a dove perching on a tree branch above heard his cries and immediately went to his rescue. Using her beak, the dove plucked a leaf and dropped it nearby. The ant struggled but eventually managed to climb onto the leaf and floated ashore safely.

"How can I ever repay your kindness for saving my life, dear dove?" the ant cried out thankfully.

Moments later, a hunter hiding among the tall trees was about to trap the dove. Seeing that the hunter was about to cast the net, the sharp ant raced towards him and bit his leg. The hunter screamed in pain while the dove took off in a flurry. She gave a loud coo to thank the little ant for his act of bravery.

Choose the correct answer.

The ant went to the river because he was _____.

- A) dirty

The scorching sun stood high as a thirsty ant was crawling along the riverbank. He had been searching for food all morning and decided to have a drink from the river. As the tiny ant made his way down, he slipped and fell into the water. He wailed frantically, "Someone, please save me or I'll drown!"

Fortunately, a dove perching on a tree branch above heard his cries and immediately went to his rescue. Using her beak, the dove plucked a leaf and dropped it nearby. The ant struggled but eventually managed to climb onto the leaf and floated ashore safely.

"How can I ever repay your kindness for saving my life, dear dove?" the ant cried out thankfully.

Moments later, a hunter hiding among the tall trees was about to trap the dove. Seeing that the hunter was about to cast the net, the sharp ant raced towards him and bit his leg. The hunter screamed in pain while the dove took off in a flurry. She gave a loud coo to thank the little ant for his act of bravery.

Choose the correct answer.

The dove was _____ when she saw the ant struggling.

- A) flying in the air
- B) drinking by the river
