Section G: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the question that follow.

Once upon a time, there was an old man who lived with his three sons in a village. The three sons were hardworking but they quarrelled all the time. Years passed by and the old man fell sick. He told his sons to stay united but they did not listen to him. He decided to teach them a lesson.

The old man gave a bundle of ten sticks to each of them and asked them to break each stick into pieces. They broke each stick separately into pieces quickly. They started to argue among themselves over who had completed the task first and who would receive the biggest reward.

The old man said, "Now, I will give another bundle of ten sticks to you. You will have to break the sticks as a bundle, not as separate sticks." The sons tried to break the bundle of sticks but they failed to complete the task.

The old man explained that the single stick was easy to be broken into pieces but not when they were in a bundle. The sons finally understand their father's intention. From then on, they stayed united and worked together as a team.

Choose True or False.
