SECTION F: COMPREHENSION*Read the passage carefully

Jenny was gingerly carrying her sister's birthday cake as she entered her house. A puppy suddenly approached her. Caught by surprise, she stumbled, but she managed to regain her balance.

Unfortunately, the cake had dropped onto the floor. It was all ruined and she simply could not afford to buy another cake. She decided to make a birthday card for her sister instead.

Upset, Jenny could only glare at the puppy. She felt helpless. The skinny puppy was not hers. In fact, it did not belong to anyone. As she took a closer look, she realised that the puppy was drenched. Taking pity on it, Jenny decided to dry it with a towel and feed it. Realising that her sister would be home soon, she decided to get the place cleaned up fast enough so that she had time to prepare a card for her.

As she was trying to pick up the pieces of cake from the floor, her sister came back. She saw the puppy right away and she did not even notice the mess. "Wow!" she exclaimed. "What a beautiful puppy! How did you know that I wanted a puppy?" She lifted it up immediately. "This is the best birthday present I've ever had!"

Jenny explained what had really happened. Her sister was not upset about it and was elated with her new pet. Jenny was relieved.

Read the passage carefully

Jenny was gingerly carrying her sister's birthday cake as she entered her house. A puppy suddenly approached her. Caught by surprise, she stumbled, but she managed to regain her balance.

Unfortunately, the cake had dropped onto the floor. It was all ruined and she simply could not afford to buy another cake. She decided to make a birthday card for her sister instead.

Upset, Jenny could only glare at the puppy. She felt helpless. The skinny puppy was not hers. In fact, it did not belong to anyone. As she took a closer look, she realised that the puppy was drenched. Taking pity on it, Jenny decided to dry it with a towel and feed it. Realising that her sister would be home soon, she decided to get the place cleaned up fast enough so that she had time to prepare a card for her.

As she was trying to pick up the pieces of cake from the floor, her sister came back. She saw the puppy right away and she did not even notice the mess. "Wow!" she exclaimed. "What a beautiful puppy! How did you know that I wanted a puppy?" She lifted it up immediately. "This is the best birthday present I've ever had!"

Jenny explained what had really happened. Her sister was not upset about it and was elated with her new pet. Jenny was relieved.

Choose the correct option

Jenny took the puppy into the house because

- ✓ A) she wanted to feed it
- B) she could keep it as a pet
- C) she could not afford to buy a birthday present for her sister
