Section F: Comprehension

One afternoon, two brothers, Kenny and Samuel, were having lunch in the dining room of their house. They had just played soccer and were extremely hungry. Their father was in the kitchen making himself a cup of coffee.

While enjoying their food, Kenny and Samuel heard a deafening crash. Puzzled, the boys rushed to the front door. Kenny opened the door to see what had happened. They gasped in horror. A car had collided into a tree in front of their house and the driver was wounded badly. Kenny stood still. He was too shocked to do anything. Just then, their father came to see what had happened.

Samuel and their father immediately rushed out of the house to help the driver. Samuel whipped out his mobile phone to call for an ambulance. He comforted the driver. Their father went back into the house to get the first-aid kit to help clean the driver's wounds. Feeling touched, the driver thanked both of them for their help.

After a while, the ambulance arrived and took the injured driver to the hospital. Kenny was very proud of both Samuel and their father. He was inspired by how calm they were. He hoped he could help others during an emergency in future.

Section G: Comprehension

Kelly and her sister, Sue, were excited to go camping on their own for the first time. Their parents agreed to it after they had pleaded several times. The girls were a little anxious that no one would be there with them but were eager to start an adventure on their own.

On the way to the campsite, they passed a small hut after crossing a wooden bridge. After walking for a few minutes, they crossed a river. Soon, they realized that the campsite was nearby. The girls were delighted.

Upon arriving at the campsite, they set up their tent before collecting firewood to start a fire to cook dinner. Feeling exhausted, they went into their tent and were soon fast asleep.

Halfway through the night, Kelly was rudely awakened by her sister.

"There's something moving outside our tent!" Sue whispered.

Kelly's heart started thumping wildly and she sat up immediately.

"Don't worry. It's just a harmless animal," Kelly said to Sue reassuringly.

The two sisters held their breath as the animal approached their tent. Then, it stopped in front of the tent. Armed with a piece of firewood, Kelly was all ready to strike the animal if it decided to enter.

Just then, the entrance of the tent flung open.

"Surprise!" exclaimed a tall, burly man.

"Dad! Why are you here?" Kelly and Sue cried out in disbelief.

"I was worried about your safety, so I decided to make a trip here to check on the two of you," Mr Tan replied.

The two girls heaved a sigh of relief. They were glad that their father was there to spend the night with them.

Kelly and Sue had to walk past three different places before they reached their campsite. What were the three places?
