About Us

Dotphin Discovery Centre is a non-profit organisation. With the help of 100 volunteers, we aim to promote research, conservation and education of Bottlenose dolphins and other native marine life.

Highlight 1: Dolphin Eco Cruise

The cruise gets you as close as possible to the dolphins without getting your feet wet. You can watch them play, feed and even sleep from the liner.

What is included?

- 1-hour cruise with commentary by a guide
- Light refreshments on cruise

The guide was knowledgeable about dolphins and knew where exactly to locate

Mr Will Martin from Canada

Highlight 2: Guided Snorkel

Join us for an intimate swim with wild Bottlenose dolphins in their natural habitat. You will be captivated by the energy of the dolphins and the vibrancy of other marine life.

You must be above six years old to participate. Beginner swimmers are also welcome to take part.

What is included?

- 1-hour guided swim
- Wetsuit, snorkel and fins rental
- Light refreshments after the swim

The crew were so friendly and helpful, We felt welcome and wall taken care of."

Miss Denise Lim from Singapore

Highlight 3: Interaction Zone

The interaction Zone is located in the shallow water in front of the centre. Visitors only have to take a one-minute walk to interact with the wild dolphins.

The Bottlenose dolphins are wild mammals; therefore, their visits are spontaneous at any time of the year with most frequent visits occurring in the mornings. Each visit may last from seconds to hours, so always have your camera ready!

To protect both the dolphins and the visitors at the Interaction Zone, a strict set of guidelines must be followed:

- 1. Visitors must stay within the marked area in the water.
- For the welfare of the dolphins and the safety of visitors, touching and feeding of dolphins are strictly prohibited.
- Do not try to attract a dolphin by clapping hands, making loud noises or splashing water as these can be seen as signs of aggression.

You have to make a booking for any of the 3 Highlight activities. Please register 2 days in advance at our website at www.dolphindiscoverycentre.com

For group booking of more than 15 persons, email us at bookings@dolphinsdiscoverycentre.com with the following details:

- name of contact person and mobile number
- names of Highlight activities that you would like to participate
- number of participants
 preferred date of visit

Adopt-a-Dolphin Programme

Do you know that each year 100 dolphins in our waters are injured by fishing nets?

Do you know you can play a part in protecting these amazing animals?

Do you know you can support the centre's conservation efforts by adopting a dolphin?

Find out how you can make a difference today! Visit our website at www.dolphindiscoverycentre.com.

The main purpose of the Dolphin Discovery Centre is to _____

- A) attract visitors to sign up as volunteers
- B) encourage interaction between humans and dolphins
- C) promote Highlights 1, 2 and 3 as interesting activities
- ✓ D) carry out research and conservation work on Bottlenose dolphins

Section I Comprehension (20marks)

We were all standing in the line waiting for our breakfast when the caseworkers barged into the canteen and moved along the line. It could only mean that they had found a foster home for somebody. I wondered who that could be.

Mrs Wong stopped in front of me and said, "Are you Hock Ming?" I nodded. She pulled me out of the line abruptly. Then she pulled Jerry over too.

"Boys, good news, both of you have been accepted in new temporary care homes starting this afternoon."

Jerry asked the same thing I was thinking, "Together?"

"No, Jerry. You'll be with a family with three little girls," she checked her papers and continued, "and Hock Ming, you'll be with Mr and Mrs Sim and their son who's twelve years old. Two years your senior. I'm sure both of you will be very happy."

We looked at each other with furrowed brows and eyes filled with dread.

Mrs Wong said, "We managed to find two families who have opened up their goors to you when people are losing their jobs in this difficult time. Moreover, they seem to be wonderful people. It is your good fortune to be accepted by them. I think it's best that you show your new families that you are very..." she dragged out the word 'very' for us to finish the sentence for her.

Jerry said, "Cheerful, helpful and grateful." I moved my lips and mumbled. "Good," she smiled and walked away.

That would be the third foster home I was going to. I thought I was so used to packing up and leaving, but I was taken aback. My nose got all runny, my throat choky and my eyes all stingy. I could tell Jerry was losing the battle not to cry. He was biting his lip but tears popped out of his eyes and rolled down his cheeks.

"I know being in a house with three girls sounds terrible, Jerry, but it is a lot better than a boy two years older than you. An older boy always wants to fight but those little girls, they are going to treat you really well, like a little pet," I reassured Jerry.

"You really think so?" Jerry asked. He did not look so scared anymore. Even though I was the one in a worse position, I could not help feeling sorry for Jerry. Not only because he had to live around three girls, but being six was also a real tough age. It was at six when grown-ups did not think you were that cute anymore and they expected you to behave like an adult. Six was the age I came to live at the orphanage. That was how old I was when my parents died.

I reached under my bed for my suitcase, set it on the mattress and unlocked t. I did what I do before I sleep every night. I checked to make sure everything was 35 inside. With more and more children coming into the orphanage every day, I had to ensure no one had run off with any of my things. My gaze fell on Bunny, a stuffed toy rabbit Jerry gave me on the day we became friends. Seated beside it was my most valued possession, a toy car. I picked it up and locked my suitcase.

I sat on Jerry's bed with him. "For you," I uttered as I placed the toy car in 40 Jerry's hands. He sniffed and gave me a weak smile. Then, neither of us said anything. We just sat close enough so that our shoulders were touching, treasuring the little time we still had together before we went on separate ways. Gradually, I felt comforted. Maybe, one day, our paths would cross again...
