Art Appreciation Festival

Come join us at Flora Community Centre!

Date: Saturday, 22 December 2018

Time: 9.00 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.

Address: 38 Jalan Gardenia, Singapore 409388

This is the second year that Flora Community Centre is organising the Art Appreciation Festival! Besides interesting workshops conducted by professional trainers, we will be displaying art pieces donated by our local artists! Come down to the community centre and immerse yourself in a day of fun!

Feedback from last year's participants

"Art is not just about painting. It is also about sewing and origami! Not only did I learn how to make flowers out of crepe paper, but I also stitched my own bag! My teacher was impressed with my school art project and selected it for display!"

Ella, 12 years old

"Of all the workshops, I benefitted from attending Print Making and Watercolour Amusement. I had fun blending colours and making prints. The techniques I had picked up at the festival helped me with my school art project. I was given an 'A'!"

Brendon, 11 years old

Did you know?

According to art lecturers at a local university, art develops our creativity. We can acquire many important skills such as observing and viewing the world in different ways. Art allows students to understand that there is more than one solution to a problem. There is also more than one way to interpret any piece of art.

Sign up for these workshops now!

Print Making

You will learn to design simple patterns and create your very own printing on paper pulp!

Note: Suitable for all ages. Do bring along an old shirt or apron so that you do not stain your clothes!

Fees: $25

Time: 11.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m.

Paper Blooms

Try making paper flowers! Miss Eliza Goh, owner of Petals & Leaves, will conduct this origami workshop! You will learn to make roses, cherry blossoms and lilies.

Note: This workshop is meant for senior citizens. You will get to keep the flowers at the end of the workshop!

Fees: $15

Time: 2.00 p.m. to 4.00 p.m.

Watercolour Amazement

Watercolour designs can be seen everywhere - on posters, on cards and even on clothing! Learn how to blend colours and paint using various techniques!

Note: Suitable for all ages. Do bring along an old shirt or apron so that you do not stain your clothes!

Fees: $10

Time: 2.00 p.m. to 4.00 p.m.

Leather Craftwork

Learn about the different types of leather and leather stitching. You will also learn how to make a leather key holder!

Note: For adults only

Fees: $40

Time: 6.00 p.m. to 8.00 p.m.

*Please note that materials will be provided for all workshops.
Register before 27 October 2018.*

Question 62

Primary 5 English » Primary 5 English (Term 4) 0 pts

I never thought I would meet my primary school teacher, Mrs Lee, again after all these years. I was busy shopping for groceries with my family and there she was at the corner of the store smiling at me. "Amy!" she called and I returned it with a wave. That gentle smile was a rare sight ten years ago. Mrs Lee was a strict teacher with an unpredictable temperament. She was well-known among my classmates for her icy cold stare that would send shivers down our spines. However, I had the privilege of seeing the 'other' side of her - the warm, kind and gentle side.

I could still remember that very day I turned eleven. I had not cried in front of others, not even when I was totally distraught after Sunny, my dog, disappeared one night. Everyone knew how much he had meant to me. However, I had kept my sadness bottled up inside me until something happened on my eleventh birthday and Mrs Lee was there to witness it all.

"Whose is this?" Mrs Lee asked as she held a red sweater up in the air. I looked down and pretended to read. With a tinge of annoyance, she continued, "Whose? It's been sitting in my cupboard for ages." She frowned and then narrowed her eyes at every one of us, waiting for an answer. No one dared to reply. The owner of the sweater would surely get a good scolding from her. "Do I have to ask again?" she raised her voice.

"Not mine," chorused the class. "It has to belong to somebody," she said sternly. No one could recall who it belonged to. It looked familiar though. One look at it and I knew it was not my kind of sweater. It had red plastic buttons and sleeves that were all stretched out. Sigh! I wondered why Mrs Lee was making a big fuss out of the issue that morning.

Then a squeaky voice spoke, "I think it belongs to Amy." It was Suzy. She looked at me and gave me a smirk. I knew she was still upset with me for not attending her birthday party and wanted to get back at me. How could I? Sunny had just disappeared that week and I was in no mood to attend a party. Then to my disbelief, Mrs Lee took the sweater and put it right on my desk. When I opened my mouth to protest, nothing came out. Mrs Lee then opened her book and told everyone to turn to page fifty-two. I was feeling sick inside. I started telling myself that it was my birthday and I did not deserve this. Why did Mrs Lee believe her?

I decided to toss the sweater over the school gate after school. Before I could pick it up by its sleeve, Mrs Lee asked, "Aren't you keeping it?" I was stumped for a moment. "It's not..." I started. The next few words failed to come out. "Keep it in your bag!" Mrs Lee ordered. All of a sudden, everything I had been holding in since the night Sunny disappeared was finally let go. That day was my eleventh birthday and there I was crying uncontrollably. I put my head down on my desk and buried my face in my arms. I was shaking all over.

Then I felt a hand at the back of my head. A soft voice spoke. "It's alright, Amy. I'll take the sweater back. Hmm...it's not your colour anyway." I could not believe what I had just heard. Mrs Lee apologised and swiftly put away the sweater. She gave me a smile and a wink afterwards. I could hear a loud gasp in the crowd. That was not the Mrs Lee I knew.

Later that day, she walked me home and we talked about Sunny. Somehow she knew what had happened to him. The lady I was walking with was warm, understanding and even funny. She even assured me that Sunny might return one day. She actually understood my pain. It was not the sweater. It was Sunny.

Pick out a three-word phrase in paragraph 1 that tells us that the writer was fortunate enough to experience the "other" side of Mrs Lee.
