Here's what our visitor, Mr Ahmed has to say... When I was little, my father, who loves nature, would often take me to Bird Paradise Park. We never missed the bird shows and were awed by the birds' show-stopping antics. I loved watching the interactive feeding sessions and learning more about the birds. Now that I'm a father myself, I make it a point to bring my family here. Though my sons do not share my passion for feeding the birds, they're always thrilled by the bird shows. I'm glad that the park is starting a compaign on saving the Blue Parrots from extinction.

This park is fully funded by the Tan Foundation – a community effort to educate the public about wildlife conservation.

Save the Blue Parrots

Bird Paradise Park is going to launch a campaign called 'Let Blue Parrots Live' in November. It hopes to raise public awareness that blue parrots are a rare species now due to the irresponsible cutting down of trees. Be sure to sure to catch a glimpse of the blue parrots whose brilliant blue feathers will take your breath away!

Let Blue Parrots Live Carnival

Jim and Selena were zoology students. As part of their studies on wildlife, they travelled to the Wildlife Reserve Park in Sarawak, hoping to observe unusual animals such as the sun bear and the orangutan. To their disappointment, they only spotted common birds, lizards, squirrels and monkeys in the park. Jim and Selena experienced this frustration for the first few days of their trip. Jim, who had always wanted to study exotic wildlife up close, began to wonder if it was going to be a fruitless trip.

On the second week of their trip, Jim and Selena set off early in the morning to explore the surrounding forested areas at the foot of a mountain. That night, they made their way back to their hostel. While driving, the headlights of their car picked out a creature crossing the road. It was a blurred figure that had just made it to the grass 10 patch along the road. Immediately, Jim stepped on his brakes and the car came to a halt, a safe distance away from it.

The surrounding area was pitch black. Jim plucked up his courage and opened the car door slowly. He moved carefully towards the creature with a torch in his hand. Selena's heart was in her mouth as she prayed for Jim's safety.

"Could it be a wild cat?" Jim wondered. It was about 50cm long and 6cm tall. Jim's curiosity was piqued. At first, he was afraid that the creature might attack him. Then, he recalled reading about the animal on the Internet, and knew without a doubt that it was a pangolin – a harmless anteater. "My dream has come true!" Jim thought excitedly. Trembling with excitement, he reached out tentatively to touch the animal.

The pangolin turned slowly and began to crawl away. Selena could see it too as Jim shone his torch slightly away from the pangolin but enough to illuminate its scales. It had a thick tail like a crocodile's and its back was covered in golden scales. The pangolin had a lean, pointed face. Its long claws clicked against the road surface. One of its claws was hurt and bleeding. It took no notice of Jim who tiptoed behind it. However, when Jim tapped its back gently, a most fascinating thing happened. The pangolin, sensing danger, took on a different shape. It shyly curled itself into a tight, golden, scaled ball.

Gingerly, Jim picked up the pangolin and held it tight against his chest to ensure that he did not drop it. It weighed about 4kg. Cradled in Jim's arms, the pangolin decided to uncur! itself. That was when its golden scales and sharp claws ripped the flesh of Jim's thumb, Jim let out a yelp but did not dare let go. Quickly. Selena opened the boot of the car and brought out a towel to wrap the pangolin. It immediately curled up into a ball once again. "You're frightening it!" Selena chided him before placing it into a cardboard box with some grass. They decided to take the pangolin to the vet at the 35 Wildlife Reserve Park.

"Do you know that peachers trap pangolins for their claws and scales to make earnings?" said the vet grimly. He then treated its injury and eventually released it into the reserve park. Both Jim and Selena were glad, knowing that the park rangers would ensure the safety of the pangolin. It really made their trip to Sarawak worthwhile.

did Jim and Selena go to Sarawak?
