

Tests Edit Test

Tests Groups Links

Primary 6 English (Term 2) - Catholic High

Add Questions

Assign

Settings

Review

Duplicate

Print

Delete

▶ Preview Test

↶ Assign Test

Test Introduction

+ Add Introduction

73 Questions (74 Points)

Question Bank: 12,655 Questions

Test Questions

0 Test Assignments

Question 1

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

For each question, four options are given. One of them is the correct answer. Make your choice (A, B, C or D) and choose the correct answer. (10 marks)

"You've hardly come across this type of question before, _____ you?" the teacher asked the class.

- A. had
- ✓ B. have
- C. hadn't
- D. haven't

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,051

↶ Answers | ✎ Edit | Duplicate | ↶ Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 2

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

It is important to do _____ research before embarking on a project to ensure that accurate information is gathered.

- A. exclusive
- ✓ B. extensive
- C. expansive
- D. expressive

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,035

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 3

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

The sight of the _____ furnished room with only a broken chair shocked Ben who was used to staying at five-star hotels.

- A. stylishly
- B. scarcely
- ✓ C. sparsely
- D. sparingly

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,037

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 4

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Samuel was extremely remorseful and cried uncontrollably when he was _____ of theft at the end of the trial.

- A. charged
- ✓ B. convicted
- C. committed
- D. condemned

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,039

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 5

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Adult male gorillas do not _____ when they are challenged. Instead, they beat their chest with their hands rapidly as a warning sign.

- A. back up
- B. back out
- C. back away
- ✓ D. back down

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,041

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 6

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

We should place the latest titles in a _____ position at the front of the library so that readers can see and have easy access to them.

- A. feasible
- B. honorary
- C. renowned
- ✓ D. prominent

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,043

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 7

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

"If the prankster had called again, I _____ him a lesson!" Mrs Lee exclaimed.

- A. will teach
- B. would teach
- C. will have taught
- ✓ D. would have taught

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,052

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 8

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

The accused was holding _____ a piece of vital information from the police. His reluctance to reveal the truth was puzzling.

- A. up
- B. off
- C. onto
- ✓ D. back

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,053

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 9

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Initially, it was not easy for Jason to live by himself overseas but he soon grew accustomed _____ it and started enjoying it.

- A. of
- ✓ B. to
- C. with
- D. about

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021

Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,054

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 10

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

The bow and arrow _____ used as a weapon for hunting since prehistoric times.

- A. is being
- ✓ B. has been
- C. are being
- D. have been

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,055

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 11

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Neither of the siblings _____ for the upcoming inter-school swimming competition now.

- ✓ A. is training
- B. are training
- C. has trained
- D. have trained

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,056

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 12

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Everyone except Frederick _____ given a stern lecture by the discipline master yesterday for being late for morning assembly.

- A. is
- B. are

- ✓ C. was
- D. were

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,057

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 13

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

"_____ your disappointment is understandable, you should not vent your frustrations on others," the teacher advised Jennifer.

- ✓ A. While
- B. Unless
- C. Despite
- D. However

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,060

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 14

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Siti, _____ cat died, has been crying her eyes out since the tragic accident.

- A. who
- B. which
- C. who's
- ✓ D. whose

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,061

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 15

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

The tennis team's poor performance has left them with _____ hope of advancing to the finals of the national tennis competition.

- A. any
- B. few
- ✓ C. little
- D. much

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,062

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 16

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

For each question, choose the word(s) closest in meaning to the underlined word(s). (5 marks)

Instant noodles are delicious, cheap and very quick and easy to prepare. In Japan, it is so well-loved that a poll in Tokyo revealed it as the best invention of the 20th century.

- ✓ A. creation
- B. inspiration
- C. concoction
- D. contraption

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,036

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 17

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

In 2015 alone, 52 countries ate 40 billion servings of instant noodles! While in some parts of the world, instant noodles may be synonymous with Maggi Mee, it all started with Nissin Foods.

- A. alike
- B. similar

- ✓ C. identified
- D. corresponding

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,038

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 18

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Nonetheless, some would argue that these are the same concerns .....

- A. As
- B. Despite
- ✓ C. Regardless
- D. Futhermore

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,042

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 19

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

..... these are the same concerns associated with any processed food. Thus, food that has been processed is best eaten in moderation.

- A. united to
- ✓ B. related to
- C. referred to
- D. belonged to

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,044

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 20

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Momofuku Ando, the founder of Nissin Foods, observed a long line of people queuing up for a bowl of ramen after the war as food was a scarce commodity then. That scene on the street inspired him to create noodles that had a long shelf-life, was easy to prepare and could satisfy people easily.

In recent years scientists have been concerned about the health problems brought about by instant noodles as they are often criticised as being unhealthy food.

- ✓ A. caused
- B. secured
- C. achieved
- D. managed

---

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,040

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 21

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House

15 May 2018
10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Greetings from Furry Friends! Do you wish to learn more about our animals and what we do at this animal shelter? Well, now you can! During the open house, we will also be offering hour-long guided tours of our premises. The guides, who are all long-time volunteers, will tell you about each of our animals' stories – their lives before and after rescue – and about this shelter's daily operations. Due to space constraint, we can only accommodate up to a maximum of 10 visitors per group. Please visit our website to sign up for the guided tours at least a week before the day of our open house to avoid disappointment. Registration will close on 8 May 2018.

Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?

Bring your whole family along to interact with our animals. These unfortunate animals have been abandoned and are in dire need of a stable home. We are confident that you will fall in love with our animals. However, we believe that our animals and their potential owners must connect and be comfortable with one another even before adoption is considered.

Free Adoption Starter Kit!

To help you get started, we provide a free kit for every first-time pet owner. Depending on the type of animal you adopt, the kit may include items like bedding, grooming tools, food samples, and pet supplies vouchers!

ADOPT, DON'T BUY!

Every month, Furry Friends Animal Shelter takes in about 20 stray animals and 10 animals from pet owners who want to give up their pets. There are numerous other shelters in Singapore, and the number of animals that need to be taken care of is increasing at an alarming rate.

When you adopt an animal from a shelter, you are not only giving that animal a second chance but you are also helping shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in more animals.

HELP ANIMALS TODAY...
BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

1. Do you love animals?
2. Are you at least 18 years of age?
3. Can you volunteer on a weekly basis for at least 6 months?
4. Are you comfortable with handling animals?
5. Would you be willing to clean animal enclosures?

If you have answered 'Yes!' to all the above questions, WE NEED YOU! You can visit our website to sign up as a volunteer or come by our Volunteers Office during our open house and speak to Vic Lee, our Volunteers Manager.

FURRY FRIENDS ANIMAL SHELTER

انسان

Opening hours: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends
Address: 1001 Maple Road, Singapore 901001
Website: www.furryfriends.sg
Email: contact@furryfriends.sg

Look at the first line of paragraph 1. Why is the first letter of each word of "Furry Friends" in capital letters?

- ✓ A. The words are used as a name.
- B. The words appear in the first sentence.
- C. It is to make the words stand out in the paragraph.
- D. It is to emphasise the fact that it is an animal shelter.

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,045

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | ↖ Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 22

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House

15 May 2018
10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Greetings from Furry Friends! Do you wish to learn more about our animals and what we do at this animal shelter? Well, now you can! During the open house, we will also be offering hour-long guided tours of our premises. The guides, who are all long-time volunteers, will tell you about each of our animals' stories – their lives before and after rescue – and about this shelter's daily operations. Due to space constraint, we can only accommodate up to a maximum of 10 visitors per group. Please visit our website to sign up for the guided tours at least a week before the day of our open house to avoid disappointment. Registration will close on 8 May 2018.

Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?

Bring your whole family along to interact with our animals. These unfortunate animals have been abandoned and are in dire need of a stable home. We are confident that you will fall in love with our animals. However, we believe that our animals and their potential owners must connect and be comfortable with one another even before adoption is considered.

Free Adoption Starter Kit!

To help you get started, we provide a free kit for every first-time pet owner. Depending on the type of animal you adopt, the kit may include items like bedding, grooming tools, food samples, and pet supplies vouchers!

ADOPT, DON'T BUY!

Every month, Furry Friends Animal Shelter takes in about 20 stray animals and 10 animals from pet owners who want to give up their pets. There are numerous other shelters in Singapore, and the number of animals that need to be taken care of is increasing at an alarming rate.

When you adopt an animal from a shelter, you are not only giving that animal a second chance but you are also helping shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in more animals.

HELP ANIMALS TODAY...
BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

1. Do you love animals?
2. Are you at least 18 years of age?
3. Can you volunteer on a weekly basis for at least 6 months?
4. Are you comfortable with handling animals?
5. Would you be willing to clean animal enclosures?

If you have answered 'Yes!' to all the above questions, WE NEED YOU! You can visit our website to sign up as a volunteer or come by our Volunteers Office during our open house and speak to Vic Lee, our Volunteers Manager.

FURRY FRIENDS ANIMAL SHELTER

انسان

Opening hours: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends
Address: 1001 Maple Road, Singapore 901001
Website: www.furryfriends.sg
Email: contact@furryfriends.sg

Which of the following statements is correct about the "Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House"?

- A. The guides conducting the tours are permanent staff of the shelter.
- ✓ B. Participants who are interested in the guided tour can only sign up for it online.
- C. The guided tour will commence only if a minimum of ten participants sign up for it.
- D. Participants who are interested in the guided tour can send an email to the guides.

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,046

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 23

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House

15 May 2018
10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Greetings from Furry Friends! Do you wish to learn more about our animals and what we do at this animal shelter? Well, now you can! During the open house, we will also be offering hour-long guided tours of our premises. The guides, who are all long-time volunteers, will tell you about each of our animals' stories – their lives before and after rescue – and about this shelter's daily operations. Due to space constraint, we can only accommodate up to a maximum of 10 visitors per group. Please visit our website to sign up for the guided tours at least a week before the day of our open house to avoid disappointment. Registration will close on 8 May 2018.

Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?

Bring your whole family along to interact with our animals. These unfortunate animals have been abandoned and are in dire need of a stable home. We are confident that you will fall in love with our animals. However, we believe that our animals and their potential owners must connect and be comfortable with one another even before adoption is considered.

Free Adoption Starter Kit!

To help you get started, we provide a free kit for every first-time pet owner. Depending on the type of animal you adopt, the kit may include items like bedding, grooming tools, food samples, and pet supplies vouchers!

ADOPT, DON'T BUY!

Every month, Furry Friends Animal Shelter takes in about 20 stray animals and 10 animals from pet owners who want to give up their pets. There are numerous other shelters in Singapore, and the number of animals that need to be taken care of is increasing at an alarming rate.

When you adopt an animal from a shelter, you are not only giving that animal a second chance but you are also helping shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in more animals.

HELP ANIMALS TODAY...
BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

1. Do you love animals?
2. Are you at least 18 years of age?
3. Can you volunteer on a weekly basis for at least 6 months?
4. Are you comfortable with handling animals?
5. Would you be willing to clean animal enclosures?

If you have answered 'Yes!' to all the above questions, WE NEED YOU! You can visit our website to sign up as a volunteer or come by our Volunteers Office during our open house and speak to Vic Lee, our Volunteers Manager.

FURRY FRIENDS ANIMAL SHELTER

انسان

Opening hours: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends
Address: 1001 Maple Road, Singapore 901001
Website: www.furryfriends.sg
Email: contact@furryfriends.sg

Based on the flyer, which of the following statements is not true?

- A. The animal shelter is open daily.
- ✓ B. There is no minimum age limit to become an animal volunteer.
- C. The hour-long guided tour at the shelter will include stories of the animals' lives before and after rescue.
- D. One can help shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in other animals through adopting.

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,048

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 24

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House

15 May 2018
10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Greetings from Furry Friends! Do you wish to learn more about our animals and what we do at this animal shelter? Well, now you can! During the open house, we will also be offering hour-long guided tours of our premises. The guides, who are all long-time volunteers, will tell you about each of our animals' stories – their lives before and after rescue – and about this shelter's daily operations. Due to space constraint, we can only accommodate up to a maximum of 10 visitors per group. Please visit our website to sign up for the guided tours at least a week before the day of our open house to avoid disappointment. Registration will close on 8 May 2018.

Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?

Bring your whole family along to interact with our animals. These unfortunate animals have been abandoned and are in dire need of a stable home. We are confident that you will fall in love with our animals. However, we believe that our animals and their potential owners must connect and be comfortable with one another even before adoption is considered.

Free Adoption Starter Kit!

To help you get started, we provide a free kit for every first-time pet owner. Depending on the type of animal you adopt, the kit may include items like bedding, grooming tools, food samples, and pet supplies vouchers!

ADOPT, DON'T BUY!

Every month, Furry Friends Animal Shelter takes in about 20 stray animals and 10 animals from pet owners who want to give up their pets. There are numerous other shelters in Singapore, and the number of animals that need to be taken care of is increasing at an alarming rate.

When you adopt an animal from a shelter, you are not only giving that animal a second chance but you are also helping shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in more animals.

HELP ANIMALS TODAY...
BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

1. Do you love animals?
2. Are you at least 18 years of age?
3. Can you volunteer on a weekly basis for at least 6 months?
4. Are you comfortable with handling animals?
5. Would you be willing to clean animal enclosures?

If you have answered 'Yes!' to all the above questions, WE NEED YOU! You can visit our website to sign up as a volunteer or come by our Volunteers Office during our open house and speak to Vic Lee, our Volunteers Manager.

FURRY FRIENDS ANIMAL SHELTER

انسان

Opening hours: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends
Address: 1001 Maple Road, Singapore 901001
Website: www.furryfriends.sg
Email: contact@furryfriends.sg

Look at the section "Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?" What does "one another" in bold refer to?

- A. guides and visitors
- B. pet owners and their pets
- C. members of families that want to adopt animals
- ✓ D. the shelter's animals and those who want to adopt them

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,047

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 25

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House

15 May 2018
10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Greetings from Furry Friends! Do you wish to learn more about our animals and what we do at this animal shelter? Well, now you can! During the open house, we will also be offering hour-long guided tours of our premises. The guides, who are all long-time volunteers, will tell you about each of our animals' stories – their lives before and after rescue – and about this shelter's daily operations. Due to space constraint, we can only accommodate up to a maximum of 10 visitors per group. Please visit our website to sign up for the guided tours at least a week before the day of our open house to avoid disappointment. Registration will close on 8 May 2018.

Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?

Bring your whole family along to interact with our animals. These unfortunate animals have been abandoned and are in dire need of a stable home. We are confident that you will fall in love with our animals. However, we believe that our animals and their potential owners must connect and be comfortable with one another even before adoption is considered.

Free Adoption Starter Kit!

To help you get started, we provide a free kit for every first-time pet owner. Depending on the type of animal you adopt, the kit may include items like bedding, grooming tools, food samples, and pet supplies vouchers!

ADOPT, DON'T BUY!

Every month, Furry Friends Animal Shelter takes in about 20 stray animals and 10 animals from pet owners who want to give up their pets. There are numerous other shelters in Singapore, and the number of animals that need to be taken care of is increasing at an alarming rate.

When you adopt an animal from a shelter, you are not only giving that animal a second chance but you are also helping shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in more animals.

HELP ANIMALS TODAY...
BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

1. Do you love animals?
2. Are you at least 18 years of age?
3. Can you volunteer on a weekly basis for at least 6 months?
4. Are you comfortable with handling animals?
5. Would you be willing to clean animal enclosures?

If you have answered 'Yes!' to all the above questions, WE NEED YOU! You can visit our website to sign up as a volunteer or come by our Volunteers Office during our open house and speak to Vic Lee, our Volunteers Manager.

FURRY FRIENDS ANIMAL SHELTER

انسان

Opening hours: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends
Address: 1001 Maple Road, Singapore 901001
Website: www.furryfriends.sg
Email: contact@furryfriends.sg

Why is the shelter giving away free adoption starter kits to first-time pet owners?

- A. to get rid of food samples which are going to expire
- ✓ B. to support and thank them for giving an animal a new lease of life
- C. to ensure that they have all the essential items needed to care for their pet
- D. to show that the items needed vary depending on the type of animals adopted

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,049

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 26

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House

15 May 2018
10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Greetings from Furry Friends! Do you wish to learn more about our animals and what we do at this animal shelter? Well, now you can! During the open house, we will also be offering hour-long guided tours of our premises. The guides, who are all long-time volunteers, will tell you about each of our animals' stories – their lives before and after rescue – and about this shelter's daily operations. Due to space constraint, we can only accommodate up to a maximum of 10 visitors per group. Please visit our website to sign up for the guided tours at least a week before the day of our open house to avoid disappointment. Registration will close on 8 May 2018.

Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?

Bring your whole family along to interact with our animals. These unfortunate animals have been abandoned and are in dire need of a stable home. We are confident that you will fall in love with our animals. However, we believe that our animals and their potential owners must connect and be comfortable with one another even before adoption is considered.

Free Adoption Starter Kit!

To help you get started, we provide a free kit for every first-time pet owner. Depending on the type of animal you adopt, the kit may include items like bedding, grooming tools, food samples, and pet supplies vouchers!

ADOPT, DON'T BUY!

Every month, Furry Friends Animal Shelter takes in about 20 stray animals and 10 animals from pet owners who want to give up their pets. There are numerous other shelters in Singapore, and the number of animals that need to be taken care of is increasing at an alarming rate.

When you adopt an animal from a shelter, you are not only giving that animal a second chance but you are also helping shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in more animals.

HELP ANIMALS TODAY...
BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

1. Do you love animals?
2. Are you at least 18 years of age?
3. Can you volunteer on a weekly basis for at least 6 months?
4. Are you comfortable with handling animals?
5. Would you be willing to clean animal enclosures?

If you have answered 'Yes!' to all the above questions, WE NEED YOU! You can visit our website to sign up as a volunteer or come by our Volunteers Office during our open house and speak to Vic Lee, our Volunteers Manager.

FURRY FRIENDS ANIMAL SHELTER

انسان

Opening hours: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends
Address: 1001 Maple Road, Singapore 901001
Website: www.furryfriends.sg
Email: contact@furryfriends.sg

What is the main purpose of the flyer?

- ✓ A. to entice readers to attend the open house
- B. to show readers where they can give up their pets
- C. to get readers interested to volunteer during the open house
- D. to tell the readers about the stories of the animals at the shelter

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,050

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 27

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House

15 May 2018
10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Greetings from Furry Friends! Do you wish to learn more about our animals and what we do at this animal shelter? Well, now you can! During the open house, we will also be offering hour-long guided tours of our premises. The guides, who are all long-time volunteers, will tell you about each of our animals' stories – their lives before and after rescue – and about this shelter's daily operations. Due to space constraint, we can only accommodate up to a maximum of 10 visitors per group. Please visit our website to sign up for the guided tours at least a week before the day of our open house to avoid disappointment. Registration will close on 8 May 2018.

Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?

Bring your whole family along to interact with our animals. These unfortunate animals have been abandoned and are in dire need of a stable home. We are confident that you will fall in love with our animals. However, we believe that our animals and their potential owners must connect and be comfortable with one another even before adoption is considered.

Free Adoption Starter Kit!

To help you get started, we provide a free kit for every first-time pet owner. Depending on the type of animal you adopt, the kit may include items like bedding, grooming tools, food samples, and pet supplies vouchers!

ADOPT, DON'T BUY!

Every month, Furry Friends Animal Shelter takes in about 20 stray animals and 10 animals from pet owners who want to give up their pets. There are numerous other shelters in Singapore, and the number of animals that need to be taken care of is increasing at an alarming rate.

When you adopt an animal from a shelter, you are not only giving that animal a second chance but you are also helping shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in more animals.

HELP ANIMALS TODAY...
BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

1. Do you love animals?
2. Are you at least 18 years of age?
3. Can you volunteer on a weekly basis for at least 6 months?
4. Are you comfortable with handling animals?
5. Would you be willing to clean animal enclosures?

If you have answered 'Yes!' to all the above questions, WE NEED YOU! You can visit our website to sign up as a volunteer or come by our Volunteers Office during our open house and speak to Vic Lee, our Volunteers Manager.

FURRY FRIENDS ANIMAL SHELTER

انسان

Opening hours: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends
Address: 1001 Maple Road, Singapore 901001
Website: www.furryfriends.sg
Email: contact@furryfriends.sg

What is the purpose of the questions in the section "Help Animals Today... Become a Volunteer!"?

- ✓ A. to specify the expectations of an animal volunteer
- B. to check whether the readers understood the section
- C. to arouse readers' interest in becoming animal volunteers
- D. to show that the shelter is serious about getting animal volunteers

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,058

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 28

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Furry Friends Animal Shelter Open House

15 May 2018
10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Greetings from Furry Friends! Do you wish to learn more about our animals and what we do at this animal shelter? Well, now you can! During the open house, we will also be offering hour-long guided tours of our premises. The guides, who are all long-time volunteers, will tell you about each of our animals' stories – their lives before and after rescue – and about this shelter's daily operations. Due to space constraint, we can only accommodate up to a maximum of 10 visitors per group. Please visit our website to sign up for the guided tours at least a week before the day of our open house to avoid disappointment. Registration will close on 8 May 2018.

Thinking of Adopting a Pet during the Open House?

Bring your whole family along to interact with our animals. These unfortunate animals have been abandoned and are in dire need of a stable home. We are confident that you will fall in love with our animals. However, we believe that our animals and their potential owners must connect and be comfortable with one another even before adoption is considered.

Free Adoption Starter Kit!

To help you get started, we provide a free kit for every first-time pet owner. Depending on the type of animal you adopt, the kit may include items like bedding, grooming tools, food samples, and pet supplies vouchers!

ADOPT, DON'T BUY!

Every month, Furry Friends Animal Shelter takes in about 20 stray animals and 10 animals from pet owners who want to give up their pets. There are numerous other shelters in Singapore, and the number of animals that need to be taken care of is increasing at an alarming rate.

When you adopt an animal from a shelter, you are not only giving that animal a second chance but you are also helping shelters save more lives by freeing up space for them to take in more animals.

HELP ANIMALS TODAY...
BECOME A VOLUNTEER!

1. Do you love animals?
2. Are you at least 18 years of age?
3. Can you volunteer on a weekly basis for at least 6 months?
4. Are you comfortable with handling animals?
5. Would you be willing to clean animal enclosures?

If you have answered 'Yes!' to all the above questions, WE NEED YOU! You can visit our website to sign up as a volunteer or come by our Volunteers Office during our open house and speak to Vic Lee, our Volunteers Manager.

FURRY FRIENDS ANIMAL SHELTER

Opening hours: 12 p.m. – 4 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends
 Address: 1001 Maple Road, Singapore 901001
 Website: www.furryfriends.sg
 Email: contact@furryfriends.sg

Vimal wishes to sign up as a volunteer at the shelter.
 He can sign up _____.

- ✓ A. online at www.furryfriends.sg
- B. at the animal shelter during its opening hours
- C. through email indicating his interest to volunteer
- D. by visiting the Volunteers Office during office hours

Question Type: Multiple Choice
Randomize Answers: No
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,059

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | ↶ Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 29

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

For each question, rewrite the given sentence(s) using the word(s) provided. Your answer must be in one sentence. The meaning of your sentence must be the same as the meaning of the given sentence(s). (10 marks)

"Did Tom attend the meeting last week?" Dylan asked Rose.

Dylan asked Rose _____

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,105

Correctly answered feedback

Dylan asked Rose if Tom had attended the meeting the previous week.

Incorrectly answered feedback

Dylan asked Rose if Tom had attended the meeting the previous week.

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 30

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

You must practise playing the piano diligently. You will improve.

_____ unless

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,096

Correctly answered feedback

You will not improve unless you practice playing the piano diligently.

Incorrectly answered feedback

You will not improve unless you practice playing the piano diligently.

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 31

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

Mrs Qing switched to brown rice and cut down on sugared drinks. She lost five kilogrammes.

By switching to _____

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,097

Correctly answered feedback

By switching to brown rice and cutting down on sugared drinks, Mrs Qing lost five kilogrammes.

Incorrectly answered feedback

By switching to brown rice and cutting down on sugared drinks, Mrs Qing lost five kilogrammes.

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 32

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

The travel company advised the passengers to book their tickets early.

The passengers _____

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,099

Correctly answered feedback

The passengers were advised to book their tickets early by the travel company.

Incorrectly answered feedback

The passengers were advised to book their tickets early by the travel company.

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 33

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

Jennifer is diligent and sincere. This helped her to achieve the first prize.

Jennifer's _____

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,101

Correctly answered feedback

Jennifer's diligence and sincerity helped her to achieve the first prize.

Incorrectly answered feedback

Jennifer's diligence and sincerity helped her to achieve the first prize.

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 34

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Fill in each blank with a suitable word. (15 marks)

Yesterday, Singaporean chef, Paul Simon's wish came true. The President enjoyed a three-course _____ that he had prepared at the Istana (the President's official residence).

Accepted answers:

✓ meal

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,110

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 35

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

"I never expected to get this _____ to cook for the President," said Mr. Simon.

Accepted answers:

✓ chance

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,111

↶ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇️ ReorderRemove From Test

Question 36

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Madam Halimah was touched after _____ a report in The Straits Times last month in which .....

Accepted answers:

✓ reading

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,112

↶ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇️ ReorderRemove From Test

Question 37

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

..... in which the 26-year-old _____ his desire to cook for her.

Accepted answers:

✓ express

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,114

↶ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇️ ReorderRemove From Test

Question 38

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

She asked her staff to _____ out to Mr Simon and invite him to the Istana.

Accepted answers:

✓ reach

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,115

↶ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇️ ReorderRemove From Test

Question 39

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

He was _____ of seven people with disabilities featured in .....

Accepted answers:

✓ one

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,116

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ ReorderRemove From TestQuestion 40

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

..... featured in an _____ in the newspaper to mark the International Day of Disabled Persons.

Accepted answers:

✓ article

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,117

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ ReorderRemove From TestQuestion 41

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

He said he wanted to choose three dishes that would go well together so he _____ for mango salsa salad, chicken bryani and sweet corn sago.

Accepted answers:

✓ opted

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,118

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ ReorderRemove From TestQuestion 42

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

The bryani gravy was based on a family recipe _____ on to him by his mother.

Accepted answers:

✓ passed

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,119

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 43

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

"To prepare for the main course, _____ is of a stronger flavour, I kept the appetiser light and refreshing," he said.

Accepted answers:

✓ which
✓ that

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,120

Correctly answered feedback

which / that

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 44

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

He spent yesterday slicing red chillies, mixing the bryani gravy and sampling the rice to _____ it was just the right texture.

Accepted answers:

✓ ensure

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,121

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 45

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

The Istana had bought the _____ that were needed, such as chicken and sago, before Mr. Simon arrived.

Accepted answers:

✓ ingredients

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,122

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 46

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Mr Simon told the reporter that he was nervous at first _____ he quickly got into his stride when he was assisted by a junior chef.

Accepted answers:

✓ but

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,123

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 47

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Madam Halimah _____ Mr. Simon's cooking, saying the salad was "very good and fresh" while the rice was "light and fluffy".

Accepted answers:

✓ enjoyed

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A

QID#: 28,640,124

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 48

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

"You will have a promising career in cooking because good food will never go ____ of date," said Madam Halimah, as they enjoyed dessert together. Mr. Simon said, "I am trying to further my studies and be more stable so that I can open a restaurant in the future."

Accepted answers:

✓ out

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,130

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 49

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in the answer box. (12 marks)

Mre Elizabeth Choy is better known in Singapore as a war heroine. Mrs Choy, together with her husband, were jailed and tortured by the Japanese Military Administration Department .....

Accepted answers:

✓ was

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,125

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 50

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

..... by the Japanese Military Administration Department for helping to passed food, medicine and messages to British prisoners of war during the Japanese Occupation.

Accepted answers:

✓ pass

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,126

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 51

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Her psychological resilience helped her to endure the interrogashens by her Japaese captors.

Accepted answers:

✓ interrogations

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,128

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 52

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

After the war, Mrs Choy was given a prestigious award by the British .....

Accepted answers:

✓ prestigious

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,129

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 53

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

..... by the British in recognised of her valour during the Japanese Occupation.

Accepted answers:

✓ recognition

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021

Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,131

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 54

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Having go through the war, her outlook of life had changed.

Accepted answers:

✓ gone

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,132

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 55

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

In her reflekshen on the lessons learnt from the war, she said.....

Accepted answers:

✓ reflection

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,133

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 56

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

..... "My values are quite changed. I am not materealistik, even to this day. Never mind if I have no mansion or diamonds ..... still, I'm happy."

Accepted answers:

✓ materialistic

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,134

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 57

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Mrs Elizabeth Choy was also a natural and dedicated educator for 40 years.

Accepted answers:

✓ dedicated

---

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,106

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 58

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

Not only did she imparted theoretical knowledge to her students, but also life values.

Accepted answers:

✓ impart

---

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,107

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 59

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

This was conveyed for her in 1979, .....

Accepted answers:

✓ to

---

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,108

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | ReorderRemove From Test

Question 60

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

....., where she resieved a note which wrote, "Mrs Choy, you taught me to be patient, kind and considerate to others." She was an inspiration to many.

Accepted answers:

✓ received

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,109

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 61

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

10 pts

There are 10 blanks in the passage below. From the list of words given, choose the most suitable word for each blank.

Clue

Match

Laughter is the best medicine. Or is it, really? We have been told that it is good to laugh, that we should laugh _____ our troubles, as it would help to relieve stress.

off

Points: +1 -0

In fact, laughing gas is sometimes given to patients suffering _____ depression.

from

Points: +1 -0

There is even an exercise routine called laughter yoga, _____ participants come together and laugh using guided techniques.

where

Points: +1 -0

It is thought to make participants feel _____ energetic and happier.

more

Points: +1 -0

However, as _____ to defy all happy notions, laughter actually turned out to be a curse for one community a few decades ago.

if

Points: +1 -0

_____ epidemic of laughing that lasted almost a year broke out in Tanganykia (now Tanzania, East Africa) on 30 January 1962.

an

Points: +1 -0

It reportedly began at a mission-run boarding school for girls, _____ the laughter starting off with three girls.

Points: +1 -0

The laughter became contagious and it did not take long for the laughter to spread like wildfire throughout the school. The effects lasted for a long period of time, _____ many days and weeks.

Points: +1 -0

With students not being able to concentrate in school, the school was forced to close down _____ about one and a half months.

Points: +1 -0

The epidemic did not stop there. The affected students spread the laughter to their villages _____ even to other schools. It took six to ten months for the laughing to stand down, ending in a shutdown of 14 schools and more than a thousand affected people! This phenomenon was explained as a medical condition called Mass Psychogenic Illness (MPI).

Points: +1 -0

Incorrect match option a

Incorrect match option in

Incorrect match option most

Incorrect match option of Incorrect match option when

Question Type: Matching
Shuffle Mode: Shuffle Matches Only
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,136

↶ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇️ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 62

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets. 5

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front. 10

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!" 15

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it. 20

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve. 25

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry. 30

35

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears! 40

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace. 45

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Based on the passage, state whether the following statement in the table below is true or false, then give one reason why you think so. Refer to lines 15 - 30.

The children sustained minor injuries when they surfed the truck.

- ✓ A. TRUE
- B. FALSE

---

Question Type: True False
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,063

Correctly answered feedback

The children sustained minor injuries when they surfed the truck like a jammed finger.

Incorrectly answered feedback

The children sustained minor injuries when they surfed the truck like a jammed finger.

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 63

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets. 5

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front. 10

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!" 15

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it. 20

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve. 25

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry. 30 35

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears! 40

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace. 45

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Choose 1, 2 and 3 below to indicate the order in which the events occurred in the passage.

Clue

Match

The author's father picked up Bobby and the author.

2

Points: +0.3 -0

---

The author's father stacked the metal milk crates to the sides. 1

Points: +0.3 -0

---

The author and Bobby had fun surfing in the truck. 3

Points: +0.4 -0

---

Question Type: Matching
Shuffle Mode: Shuffle Matches Only
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,135

---

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 64

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

2 pts

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets.

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front.

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!"

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it.

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve.

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry.

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears!

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace.

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Which two of the following words correctly describe how the author felt in lines 41 - 45? Do not choose more than two.

A. concerned

- ✓ B. resentful
- C. wronged
- ✓ D. ashamed
- E. satisfied
- F. discouraged

---

Question Type: Multiple Response
Randomize Answers: No
Grade style: Full points if all answers are correct
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,034

---

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

---

Question 65

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets. 5

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front. 10

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!" 15

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of - an arm or our hair - and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it. 20

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious - a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve. 25

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry. 30

35

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears! 40

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace. 45

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Based on the passage, state whether the following statement in the table below is true or false, then give one reason why you think so. Refer to lines 15 - 30.

It was lawful for Bobby and the author to be in the milk truck.

- A. TRUE
- ✓ B. FALSE

---

Question Type: True False
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,065

Correctly answered feedback

There was a law that started.

Incorrectly answered feedback

There was a law that started.

---

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

---

Question 66

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets. 5

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front. 10

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!" 15

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it. 20

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve. 25

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry. 30

35

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears! 40

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace. 45

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Based on the passage, state whether the following statement in the table below is true or false, then give one reason why you think so. Refer to lines 15 - 30.

Bobby and the author went surfing in the truck daily.

- A. TRUE
- ✓ B. FALSE

---

Question Type: True False
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,064

Correctly answered feedback

Bobby and the author went surfing in the truck only on Saturdays.

Incorrectly answered feedback

Bobby and the author went surfing in the truck only on Saturdays.

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 67

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets.

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front.

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!"

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it.

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve.

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry.

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears!

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace.

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Based on the information from lines 15-35, fill in the blanks in the following table. [3m]

How the author felt	What made the author feel that way	What the author did as a result
	her father had allowed Bobby and her to play in the truck	patted his hand appreciatively
jealous		tried to imitate Bobby's self-control
afraid	might be badly injured when flung onto the side of the truck

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,100

Correctly answered feedback

- i) appreciative (How the author felt)
- ii) Bobby had never cried even if he got injured (What made the author feel that way)
- iii) held on for safety (What the author did as a result)

Incorrectly answered feedback

- i) appreciative (How the author felt)
- ii) Bobby had never cried even if he got injured (What made the author feel that way)
- iii) held on for safety (What the author did as a result)

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 68

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets.

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front.

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!"

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it.

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve.

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry.

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears!

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace.

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

What was the aim of the game that the author and Bobby played? (1 mark)

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,104

Correctly answered feedback

The aim of the game that the author and Bobby played was to make it through those turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the track for balance.

Incorrectly answered feedback

The aim of the game that the author and Bobby played was to make it through those turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the track for balance.

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬆️ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 69

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets.

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front.

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!"

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it.

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve.

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry.

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears!

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace.

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

In the last paragraph, why did the author shed tears of disgrace? (2 marks)

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,102

Correctly answered feedback

The author wanted to see Bobby cry on purpose so she did not call the turn.

Incorrectly answered feedback

The author wanted to see Bobby cry on purpose so she did not call the turn.

↩ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ⬇ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 70

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets. 5

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front. 10

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!" 15

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it. 20

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve. 25 30

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry. 35

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears! 40

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace. 45

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Based on paragraph 1, what two things did the children do to prevent themselves from falling in the truck? (2 marks)

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,103

Correctly answered feedback

- i) The children would plant their feet firmly on the ribbed floor.
- ii) The children would have their arms out at their sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets.

Incorrectly answered feedback

- i) The children would plant their feet firmly on the ribbed floor.
- ii) The children would have their arms out at their sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets.

Answers | Edit | Duplicate | Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 71

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

1 pt

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets.

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front.

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!"

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it.

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve.

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry.

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears!

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace.

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Pick a word from the first paragraph that tells us that the author's father was good at arranging the empty milk crates.

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Accepted answers:

✓ expertly

---

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,113

---

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

Question 72

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

2 pts

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets. 5

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front. 10

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!" 15

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it. 20

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve. 25 30

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry. 35

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears! 40

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace. 45

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Which two words from lines 8-14 show that the author's father enjoyed the children's company on Saturdays? The two words are found in two separate sentences. (2 marks)

Accepted answers:

- ✓ chortle and guffaw
- ✓ Guffaw and Chortle
- ✓ guffaw, chortle
- ✓ chortle, guffaw
- ✓ chortle guffaw
- ✓ guffaw chortle

---

Question Type: Free Text
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,127

---

↗ Answers | ✎ Edit | 📄 Duplicate | 📌 Used In | ↕ Reorder

Remove From Test

---

Question 73

Primary 6 English » Primary 6 English (Term 2)

0 pts

There were very few milk deliveries to residences on Saturdays. My father would finish his deliveries early and swing by the house in his milk truck for Bobby and me so we could "surf the truck". The empty metal milk crates were by then stacked and roped off expertly against the side panels to prevent them from sliding. This left most of the back empty, and Bobby and I would stand in the space created, our feet planted firmly on the ribbed floor, and our arms out at our sides in an attempt to remain upright as the truck rattled along the streets.

I always surfed in the forward position which was an advantage because I could see the turns coming. Bobby surfed more or less blindly behind me. He claimed that that made the game much more fun, though I did help him by calling out "Left!" or "Sharp right!" when a turn approached. The idea of the game was to make it through these turns without grabbing the empty milk crates or the railing that ran the length and breadth of the truck for balance. My father would occasionally chortle at our silly antics. Sometimes when we looked so hilarious, we would hear a loud guffaw from the front.

Though the law was not enforced, my father was not supposed to take Bobby and me in his truck. I would pat his hand appreciatively from time to time and say, "I owe you one, Papa!"

There was no passenger seat, since there weren't supposed to be any passengers, so if my father braked hard, there was nothing to stop Bobby and me but the metal railing that was there in place of the passenger seat. My father would try to grab us as we flew by, and he was good at it. We were grateful for it but we never knew what his big fist would grab hold of – an arm or our hair – and being saved from hitting the front windscreen sometimes hurt worse than colliding with it.

There was always much to worry about us getting hurt. Well, because that was what invariably happened. Of course our injuries were not serious – a jammed finger, a skinned knee, and most Saturdays we surfed until I cried. Somehow, Bobby, when he was injured, refused to cry. I deeply envied Bobby's self-control and tried my best to emulate him so our fun could go on longer. Every Saturday, I would tell myself that I was not going to cry. However, when I went crashing into the side of the truck, and my father, upon hearing the impact, turned around in his seat to check on me, my resolution would dissolve.

Each week, I told myself I would be braver, that this Saturday, I would not reach out and hold on for safety. But every outing was the same as the last and when the moment came, I grabbed on for safety. I hated the fact that Bobby never did. Neither did he cry. Gradually, I began wishing for something else entirely. I never wanted Bobby to be seriously injured, of course. But I did wish that just once he would be hurt bad enough to cry.

Therefore, our milk-truck surfing ended the only way it could. I did not witness the event unfold when Bobby was flung against the side of the truck. I heard the bone break. What saved me from suffering the same fate was my cowardice. I had seen in advance the turn coming and instead of alerting Bobby, I reached out and grabbed one of the tied-off milk crates. Bobby, taken by surprise, went flying. He immediately sat down, cradling his left wrist which was hanging limply. I loathed the fact that there were still no tears!

Later, at the hospital, I remembered what he had said to me a few minutes before passing out. "Mary, you didn't call the turn." He seemed more curious than angry as to why I had not warned him, but it was an accusation just the same. As soon as he spoke those words, I realised they were true. What had I done? This time, I shed tears of disgrace.

Adapted from: Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo

Look at the table below. What do the words in the left column refer to in the passage? Write your answers in the column on the right. (3m)

Word(s) from the passage	What the word(s) refer(s) to that (line 9)
resolution (line 30)
same fate (line 38)

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/ teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Question Type: Essay
Date Added: Fri 6th Aug 2021
Last Modified: N/A
QID#: 28,640,098

Correctly answered feedback

Words from the passage	What the word(s) refer(s) to
that (line 9)	Bobby surfing more or less blindly behind the author
resolution (line 30)	author's resolve not to cry
same fate (line 38)	breaking a bone

Incorrectly answered feedback

Words from the passage	What the word(s) refer(s) to
that (line 9)	Bobby surfing more or less blindly behind the author
resolution (line 30)	author's resolve not to cry
same fate (line 38)	breaking a bone

Answers |
 Edit |
 Duplicate |
 Used In | Reorder

Remove From Test