Part 3: Comprehension (10 marks)Read the passage carefully.

Ruby looked out of the window and saw something white moving near the bush. She took her mother's hairbrush from the bathroom and ran out of the house. There, in her garden, she found a white kitten, without a collar. She knew it did not belong to anyone.

Ruby sat down near the bush and brushed the kitten's fur. Then, she went into the house. She found a piece of bread and gave it to the kitten. The kitten gobbled up the food quickly.

Looking at the dark sky, Ruby knew that a heavy rain was about to start. She went in and asked her mother if the kitten could come in. Her mother shook her head and said, "We already have a cat in the house."

Just then, it started to rain. Ruby quickly ran out of the house. She looked near the bush but could not find the white kitten. Ruby sat at the door of her house and cried softly. "Where did it go?" she wondered to herself.

Suddenly, Ruby heard a soft mewing sound at the side of her house. She turned towards the sound. She smiled and quickly wiped her tears. She was glad that she had finally found what she was looking for. It was curled on the garden chair.

Choose the best option.
