Section E: Comprehension (10 marks total)

Read the passage carefully.

There once lived a king, who loved to hunt. He would bring his bow and arrow into the forest to hunt for animals. The king would walk deep into the forest and when he saw an animal, he would pull back on his bow and sent an arrow flying towards the animal.

The king would laugh and walk off to find the next animal. The king came to a river where he saw a deer having a drink. He hid behind a bush, readying his arrow. The deer saw the king and it spoke, "Spare me, great king. I shall be forever grateful." The king laughed at the deer. The king wanted the deer for himself. He pulled on his bow. As the king did that, he tripped on a stone, slipped and fell into the river. The king struggled in the water and called for help. The deer ran forward and used his huge antlers to scoop the king out of the river.

"You have saved me, Deer!" exclaimed king. "I will spare your life and I promise not to hunt for any other animals in this forest from now on." The deer bowed to the king and pranced off into the forest.

Choose the correct answer.

Section E: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully.

Betty had a pink stuffed rabbit and she named it Puff. It was her favourite toy and she would bring it everywhere she went. Betty would bring Puff along with her in her bag to have adventures in the park nearby.

There was once when Betty went to the park with Puff to look at some fish in the pond. Betty had sat Puff beside her at the edge of the pond. She leaned over and looked into the pond. Betty felt a little nervous, she did not want to fall in. Betty brought some bread to feed the fish. She threw small bits of the bread into the pond and the fish got all excited, jumping and splashing in the water. Suddenly, Betty knocked Puff over and it fell into the pond. Puff was floating in the pond, soaked.

Betty fished Puff out of the water and brought her home. Betty placed Puff into the washing machine and watched Puff spin round and round in it.

"What an adventure right, Puff?" Betty asked with a huge smile, "Let's go to the park again tomorrow!"
