Section G: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the question that follow.

Once upon a time, there was a poor woodcutter who loved his axe. Though he had been using it for many years, he still treasured it.

One day, while the woodcutter was crossing a river, he accidentally dropped his axe into the water. He knew he could not afford a new axe, so he sat by the river and began to cry.

Just then a fairy appeared and asked him why he was crying. After hearing the woodcutter's story, she showed him a silver axe.

"I found this axe in the river. Is this yours?" the fairy asked.

"That's not mine", replied the woodcutter sadly. The fairy then held up a golden axe.

"What about this one?" asked the fairy. The woodcutter shook his head. Finally, the fairy held up an old, wooden axe.

The woodcutter squealed, "That's mine! You found it!"

The fairy was very pleased with the woodcutter's honesty. She announced, "Your honesty deserves a reward!" She then gave the poor woodcutter all the three axes and disappeared.
