Section G: Comprehension (10 marks)Read the passage carefully. Answer questions 25 to 32

One day, as Banu was walking home from school, she noticed something strange. She saw a man furiously banging on the door of a house and shouting. Then, he took a stool and threw it at the window pane, shattering the glass. After that, he jumped into the house through the window as the grilles were unlocked. Upon seeing this, Banu quickly whipped out her mobile phone from her pocket and called the police.

Banu waited anxiously for the police to come as she continued keeping a lookout for the man. Soon, the police arrived at the house. They surrounded the house and the inspector called out to the man to turn himself in. The man, looking rather confused, and an old lady in a wheelchair came out of the house and asked what the matter was. The inspector explained that someone had reported a burglary at their house.

After checking the man's identity card, the policemen came to know that he was Mr Joshua, the owner of the house. Mr Joshua explained that he had forgotten his house keys and his mother did not open the door even after a long time. He was afraid that something might have happened to her so he broke open the window. Luckily, she was just fast asleep.

Banu was very embarrassed when she learnt the truth. She apologised to Mr Joshua profusely. Instead of chiding her, Mr Joshua praised Banu for being alert and reporting the matter as it could have been a real burglary.
