Section D: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

"Mei, Mei", Mrs Tan called. I trudged towards her uncertain. My classmates stared at me, whispering to one another. The number '95' written on the paper jumped out at me. Finally, I let out a sigh of relief.

"As usual, Mei Mei has scored the highest marks for the English test", Mrs Tan said, beaming away. My classmates broke into an applause. Tina, my best friend, smiled at me.

For the past three months, I earned extra cash by delivering newspapers every morning. My classmates had thought I wanted a new doll. The truth is that my mother had been ill for six months and the medical fees were very high. I did not tell anyone I wanted to help my family, not even Tina. Nobody needed to worry about my family and me. My mother objected even though my father had approved of my part-time job. "A smart girl like you should focus on your studies and do well in school. You shouldn't be doing that", my mother protested.

That night, I showed my test paper to my mother. Tears trickled down her cheeks. She told me that she was proud of my hard work.
