

Test: (F) Primary 4 English (Term 1) - Henry Park

Points: 28 points

Name: _____

Score: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

Select multiple choice answers with a cross or tick:

Only select one answer

Can select multiple answers

Question 1 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Vocabulary MCQ (5 x 1 mark)

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

"The _____ is leaking. We must call for the plumber to fix it," said Mother.

- _____
- A) tap
 - B) pillar
 - C) cabinet
 - D) window

Question 2 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

James was kicking a ball in the living room when he broke Grandpa's favourite vase. He is _____ now!

- _____
- A) all ears
 - B) in hot water
 - C) the apple of his eye
 - D) turning over a new leaf

Question 3 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

Mr Lim, our Science teacher, took the students to the Science laboratory to conduct a/an _____.

- A) experiment
- B) competition
- C) performance
- D) announcement

Question 4 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

The water in the pond is so dark and _____ that we could not see through it even in bright daylight.

- A) murky
- B) cooling
- C) gloomy
- D) sparkling

Question 5 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

The carpet is now clean as Mrs Lee has _____ the bread crumbs from it.

- A) erased
- B) grabbed
- C) vacuumed
- D) disinfected

Question 6 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Grammar MCQ (5 x 1 mark)

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

Yesterday, Millie _____ very happy as Mother made her a surprise breakfast in bed.

- A) is
- B) are
- C) was
- D) were

Question 7 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

"We are going to have a class excursion next week. _____ you be able to come with us?" asked Molly.

- A) May
- B) Must
- C) Would
- D) Should

Question 8 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

Billy and his brother cooked lunch by _____ as their mother was unwell.

- A) myself
- B) himself
- C) ourselves
- D) themselves

Question 9 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

The children _____ over water puddles when the bell rang.

- A) is jumping
- B) are jumping
- C) was jumping
- D) were jumping

Question 10 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided.

The pupils were reminded to walk carefully _____ the pavement as they made their way to school.

- A) at
- B) in
- C) along
- D) against

Grammar Cloze (5 x 1 mark)

Read the passage carefully. USE EACH WORD ONCE ONLY.

-
1. [] Sand! For four-year-old Jane, it was her first time seeing and touching sand. She shouted to her older sister to come out _____ the beach hut in which they were staying. A. on
-
2. [] Excitedly, the two girls made sandcastles. "My sandcastle _____ bigger than yours," Jane told Mary proudly. B. into
-
3. [] "My sandcastle is more beautifully decorated with pebbles _____ it," Mary retorted and immediately threw a handful of wet sand at Jane. C. is
-
4. [] After a short battle with sand, Jane suggested, "_____ we work together and build a sand statue instead?" D. from
-
5. [] Mary eagerly agreed. A while later, their parents joined in. "What will you use for the eyes?" Jane's mother asked her. Jane ran _____ the beach hut and brought out two pieces of charcoal. For the statue's nose, she used a rock that she had found nearby and for the mouth, she used twigs. E. shall
-

Synthesis (5 x 1 mark)

Rewrite the given sentences using the word/words provided. Your answer must be in one sentence. The meaning of your sentence must be the same as the meaning of the given sentences.

Tim was at the canteen. Ali was also there.

Both _____

Question 13 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Rewrite the given sentences using the word/words provided. Your answer must be in one sentence. The meaning of your sentence must be the same as the meaning of the given sentences.

It rained today. It rained yesterday.

_____ as well as _____

Question 14 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Rewrite the given sentences using the word/words provided. Your answer must be in one sentence. The meaning of your sentence must be the same as the meaning of the given sentences.

That is the boy. He kicked my sister.

_____ who _____

Question 15 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Rewrite the given sentences using the word/words provided. Your answer must be in one sentence. The meaning of your sentence must be the same as the meaning of the given sentences.

My mother can play the piano. My mother cannot play the violin.

Although _____

Question 16 of 25

Primary 4 English (Term 1) 1 pt

Rewrite the given sentences using the word/words provided. Your answer must be in one sentence. The meaning of your sentence must be the same as the meaning of the given sentences.

This is the old lady. Her grandchild was hurt.

_____ whose _____

Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

The lion was angry because _____ . [1m]

-
- A) he was hungry
- B) he was feeling hot
- C) the mouse woke him up
- D) the mouse was running away

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

The lion laughed at the mouse as _____. [1m]

-
- A) he thought she was tiny
 - B) he was the king of the jungle
 - C) she was begging him to spare her life
 - D) he thought she would never be able to help him

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Which three-word phrase in paragraph 1 means 'to do something at a fast speed'? [1m]

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

Number the events (1,2 and 3) in the order that they happened in the story. [1m]

1. [] The lion let the mouse go. A. 1

2. [] The mouse saved the lion. B. 2

3. [] The lion laughed at the mouse. C. 3

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

Which word in paragraph 4 shows that the mouse was 'nibbling persistently'? [1m]

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

Choose the correct sentence if the sentence is true. [1m]

-
- A) The mouse looked down on the lion.
- B) The lion realised that he was wrong at the end.

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

State whether each statement below is True or False. Give a reason to support your answer.

The lion was trying to escape from a hunter's net before the mouse arrived.

- A) True
- B) False

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

State whether each statement below is True or False. Give a reason to support your answer.

The mouse was angry that the lion laughed at her.

- A) True
- B) False

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 22 to 29.

A lion was lying under a huge shady tree, trying to escape from the sun. He had just dozed off when a timid little mouse came upon him unexpectedly. In her fright, she scurried to get away. However, her tail brushed across the lion's nose and that woke the lion from his nap. Quick as lightning, the lion laid his huge paws angrily on the tiny creature wanting to kill her.

"Please don't kill me!" begged the poor mouse. "Please let me go and some day, I will repay your kindness."

The lion smirked as he thought about what the mouse had said and started laughing at her. He was amused to think that a tiny mouse could ever help him, the king of the jungle! Feeling generous, he finally freed the mouse. She was grateful that the lion had spared her life. She did not take what the lion said to heart and was determined to keep her words.

A few days later, while stalking his prey, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared angrily as he turned and twisted in the net, trying to free himself. The mouse, who was nearby, heard the lion's roar and quickly found the lion struggling in the net. She scampered towards him and then started gnawing at the ropes until the lion was able to escape.

"You laughed when I said that I would repay you some day," said the mouse. Realising his mistake, the lion hung his head low and apologized to the mouse.

This question is designed for extended answers that parent/teacher will have to assign and guide child to attempt after the test has been completed.

Grading: This question type is not graded on this system and will not affect the final score as it was designed in such a way that it requires manual assistance.

What was the mistake made by the lion and what did he do about it? [2m]
