"Mindy, I think you're old enough to mix the batter by yourself this year. I'm sure you can do it. "

"But Mum....Yes..., I think I can do it," Mindy said hesitatingly. 10

"That's right. Now go ahead and start. Call me when you're done. I'm going to blow up the balloons." With that, Mindy was left alone in the kitchen.

Section I : Comprehension (10marks)

Denise passed by and waved to her neighbor, Mr. Lee, as he loaded his car with two big suitcases. "He must be going on a long trip. I wonder what gift he'll bring back this time," Denise pondered and smiled widely, as he waved back. She thought no more of it until two days later, when she noticed that Mr. Lee's back door was open. "Thieves!" thought Denise as she jumped 5 in shock, but then she saw Mr. Lee emerge from the back door. "It's peculiar that he packed so much for such a short trip," Denise mumbled to herself.

Denise waved to Mr. Lee, but he did not wave back. which certainly seemed out of the ordinary. Mr. Lee had always been cordial. Not waving back seemed 10 almost unneighbourly.

The next day, Denise saw Mr. Lee get into his car. "Didn't Mr. Lee's old. car used to be a dull red?" she asked herself. "This one is bright red."

The neighbor she knew was the real Mr. Lee, this one seemed false. Mr. Lee strolled in a leisurely manner. This Mr. Lee had a hurried gait. Mr. Lee 15 watered his garden in the morning, but this Mr. Lee watered the garden in the evening. Denise was puzzled by Mr. Lee's strange behavior. She can't seem to stop thinking about it. Something seemed wrong, Mr. Lee was just not himself.

Two weeks later, Mr. Lee rang the doorbell. He wore a friendly smile and held out a wrapped parcel and said, "This is a gift from my wonderful trip to Africa." Denise knew at once that this was the real Mr. Lee.

"Did you meet my twin brother?" Mr. Lee asked. "He took care of my house while I was away."

Write one word from paragraph 4 that has the same meaning as the word "peculiar" in paragraph 1.
